I've known Mr. Jimmy Anderson since I was a girl. He and I shared a birthday together, and he was a dear friend to my father, Troy Barrett. I don't think I have known a sweeter person. I know he missed his wife and daughters terribly and was ready to go home to be with the Lord. I am so glad I got to talk to him a few days ago. He will be missed but not forgotten. May God bless Robert, Patty, and the rest of the family.
