“ This is for Jimmy 's family. My name is Mollie Jeane Sinclair Linthicum. Jimmy studied "hands -on mechanics right out of high school with my Dad ,Alton Sinclair, at the Chevrolet dealership there in Carthage. I went to school with your Dad and we were great friends throughout our lives. He married your Mom, whom I knew and really liked and admired, just didn't know her as well. I married an Army Brat, Gary Linthicum. We now live in Kilgore. We lived away from this area until 1979, when we moved back to Texas and began looking up old friends from our "younger" days ---your Mom & Dad being one of our first contacts. Your Dad and I would call each other on our b'days, anniversaries and some holidays after that. I always looked forward to his calls. Sorta a way to keep connected with my roots. I suffered some serious illnesses during last of 2012 and a good part of 2013 . Gary and I noted all during this past year that Jimmy had not called and would always end up by agreeing we needed to check on him. Which I regretfully admit I failed to do. My Dad was really strict in his thinking about "kids" at the time when Jimmy worked with him. I never heard him say one hard thing about Jimmy, his Dad nor his Mother. Always bragged on "that fine young man who works with me". I am sorry not to have known about your Dad 's going to live with the Lord until now. Just know that you children were blessed to have had Jimmy and Jean for parents. Sincerely,Jeane Linthicum, one who has lost a dear friend.

Thank you Jeane. I am Gail (Turner) Stevenson, his daughter. I am so sorry. I just now read this today, September 27th,2021 Monday. I never even saw this. So sorry that you didn't know. Dad passed away following his quadriple bypass heart surgery. It was sudden and unexpected and we were heartbroken. Thank you for your warm sentimental words and memory of my Dad. Randall Turner was also my brother. The Turner's adopted us when we were young. We are his only 2 adopted children. We loved them both so much. Thank you for reaching out. I have written a book called, " Dreams really do come true", by me Gail(Turner)Stevenson. I wrote this book and it has lots of picture's of Mom & Dad, me, Randall, my children & Grandchildren....that you might enjoy. It is available online at: Amazon, Amazon Kindle, Books Amillion, Barnes & Noble. It tells about how the Turner's adopted me and MANY memories with the Turner's. Thanks again, God bless you Jeane Linthicum - Gail(Turner)Stevenson
