Jo Ann Langford Hancock was born on August 14, 1936, in the Buncombe Community and passed peacefully into the arms of Jesus on February 8, 2026. She is now in the presence of her Lord and Savior and reunited with the one she dearly loved for 62 earthly years, her husband, Calvin. Jo Ann was one of two children born to the late Buford Langford and Emma Cecil Ritter Langford. She attended Buncombe School grades 1-5. She graduated from Carthage High School with the class of 1954. She attended Panola College and then furthered her education at Stephen F. Austin University graduating in 1957 with a Bachelor's in Education.

She married Rev. Joseph Calvin Hancock on December 27, 1956. He preceded her in death on January 18, 2018. Her greatest joy was serving as a devoted pastor's wife throughout the ministry of her husband. They made lasting and lifelong friendships throughout their ministry at churches in the state of Texas. She loved teaching Sunday School, serving in children's ministry, and faithfully filled any role needed in the churches where Calvin pastored.

Jo Ann also enjoyed a career as a teacher for 34 years. She developed deep relationships with her students who remember her fondly as their first-grade teacher and her gift for teaching lessons through life stories. She taught at Carthage Primary in Carthage ISD for 21 years and made lasting friendships with her co-workers who were like family.

Until her health began to fail, Jo Ann was an active member of the church where she held membership even after Calvin passed. She was a member of Eastside Baptist Church in Gary, Texas, a church for which she had a deep love and devotion. She believed strongly in the importance of God's Word and His church. She always treasured the opportunity to be in God's house with God's people.

Jo Ann is survived by a loving and devoted family. Daughters, Janet Humber and husband Greg of Carthage, Texas, Donna Williams and husband John of Avery, Texas, Marian Ewald and husband Todd of Wapakoneta, Ohio. Son, David Hancock and wife Renee of Georgetown, Texas. Her grandchildren and great grandchildren who called her "Mamaw" and gave her great joy.

it." Psalm 118: 24.

I don't even know where to begin. There are so many wonderful things to say about her. My mother and I lived by her for a short while. My mother typically stayed to herself all of my life, but when Mrs. Hancock would be out on her walk my mother would hurry to get to visit with her on the porch. I could hear them tell stories of when they grew up and I'd hear them both laughing like young girls. She was an amazing woman. Always thinking of others and helping in any way she could. I know beyond a shadow of a doubt that she's in heaven reaping what she sowed. God bless all of her family and friends. She will be missed.
