“ How I will miss sweet, kind Johnny! It was no wonder that the kids always gravitated to him. Stephanie and Matthew always wanted to spend the night at Aunt Bob's and Uncle Johnny's house, when we lived across the street. It wasn't just the "biscuit-eaters" that enticed them. It was Johnny letting them stay up all night watching westerns on television and snacking from the well-stocked kitchen. It was a second home to them and a second mother and father. There are many tears now for this well-loved man! We will certainly miss him, but we will all see him again. He will be waiting with a big welcoming grin!

“ Jeff said it best. You can't possibly think of Uncle Johnny without him smiling. My fondest memories of him is when we lived down the road from him and Aunt Bob and staying overnight at their house and waking up to the best biscuits ever made. And those biscuits were well earned after the snore-fest that we endured throughout the night. Uncle Johnny was the Snore King and no one can challenge that. My heart goes out to my second momma Aunt Bob, Sheila, Tammy and Tab. I love you so much! To be remembered as always smiling....that means happy, right? Who wouldn't want to be remembered that way?!?! I love you Uncle Johnny and will miss you.

“ I will cherish the memories I had with my Uncle Johnny. I will miss his cute little smile and all his craziness. I loved our visits once a month just hanging out and laughing. I can't express in words what a difference he had in my life. Although the visits won't stop, there will be an emptiness in my heart for him always. We will shed many tears over him but I know one day we will all be together again. RIP my sweet, precious, crazy Uncle. I will miss you more than you can possible imagine. My love for you is eternal !!

“ The thing I remember about my Uncle Johnny is that infectious smile and laugh of his. He always had such a gentle, calming, and easy way about him. Such a sweet spirit and a great, hard-working family man. What a legacy of love he leaves behind to those who love him and will miss him. Remember folks, we'll be with him longer than we'll be without him. Thanks be to God! Love you, Uncle Johnny, and we'll see you soon.
