“ Even though I never met Mrs Woods, i do know the pain of losing a loved one in death. It is my wish that the many fond memories you shared always bring smiles to your faces, until the time you can be reunited with her in the resurrection of the dead, since it is God's will to "swallow-up death forever". the life to be enjoyed then is to be filled with peace and happiness forever here on earth, as is noted in Psalm 37:11,29. My condolences to you all.##imported-begin##Cherrie Vest##imported-end##

“ Michelle, Korey & Shonia,
Wow! Where do we begin? I'm sorry for your loss & our great friend Genelle. She was so inspiring to us & gave us so much lessons on life that we will always cherish. We'll never forget babysitting Shonia & enjoying the woolly-boolly chair (that Joe made) & enjoying lots of laughs while playing Chicken Foot, Dominos & Scrabble. However, we can not finish without Lake Murvail. Our fondest memories are on the lake with Joe & Genelle fishing, skiing, & just chillin! Our thoughts & prayers go out to you during this difficult time & need. Genelle will be greatly missed & is loved more than you know. We love you, Corinna, Marty & Morris##imported-begin##Corinna Tompkins-Deel ,Marty & Morris Tompkins##imported-end##
