“ Judy was a friend in school and afterwards. We lived in the same town, but rarely saw each other, mostly in the grocery store. She was happy and she could always make me laugh. I will miss her..just knowing that she is not with us, but I know she is the happiest now, because she is with her other family and friends. I hope and pray that the remembrance of god times will help ease the sorrow of her loss.##imported-begin##Ann Lange##imported-end##

“ *Jimmy and family,
So sorry for your loss! Judy was one of my favorite people although I didn't get to see her very often. Heaven has become a yet even better place to be with the addition of Judy. When the going gets tough and one thinks of the worst that can happen, what is the worst? Death and then Heaven? She's at peace now and at Home. Love you all!###imported-begin###Patty McMillan###imported-end###*

“ My Condolences to the family and friends,
Death is likening to a thief that comes and takes away our love one.
In the Scriptures, death is clearly explained. Furthermore, the Bible not only reveals why we die but also explains the condition of the dead and offers hope for our deceased loved ones. Finally, it speaks of a momentous time when it will be possible to report: Death is swallowed up forever. 1 Corinthians 15:54.
May the memories you shared always bring comfort to you.##imported-begin##Patricia Dantzler##imported-end##
