“ My dear friend Judy, too many years had passed without seeing or hearing from her so I grieve with you in her death. She and I go back to the sixth grade and became best buddies until our journey in life went in different direction with family and jobs but never forgotten.

We would walk across the pasture to one another's house. She taught me how to ride a bicycle. We double dated. We rode together to our doctor for our first child, Tammy and Deidra. We would have had so much to talk about .

There Will be a void in your lives and my prayers are with you. Wish I could be with you at her service.

Love and hugs to you. Lucille Mena Jones, Spring, Texas
