“ Dear Brenda and family;
I was sorry to come across this news as I was working on genealogy today. I don't have a lot of memories of your mom, as we left Texas when I was young and only visited a few times after that, but my mother always spoke highly of your mom and I have a few vague childhood memories of her sitting at a kitchen table smiling. (I believe it could have been the house on Sylvester Road) I remember your mom as being very kind and soft spoken.
Sending love to you all!
