“ *My mom.
The woman who could feed an army when
the cupboards were bare.
Brush away any hurt you may have.
She had a hard life in the beginning because of the Depression but persevered and learned early what really mattered. Our family table usually had 8-10 ppl at every meal. We said Grace. No one left hungry. Nobody was a stranger. She was tested on her faith regularly but never faltered. I can hear her now w her new choir members.
Rest forever in Glory Momma.*

“ Aunt June was so very special to me. I was adopted and didn't find my birth family until 1997 and Aunt June was so welcoming to me. She was more like a mom than an aunt. I am so thankful we had time to get to know each other. I treasure our memories and look forward to seeing her again in Heaven.
