“ The news this weekend made me so sad. Justin is in almost all of my very earliest memories of going to church in Carthage, playing together in the old white Cedar Grove building. We had the best time! I'm too far away to attend the services today but I've been thinking of the family since I heard the news, and you are in my prayers.

“ Dearest Grady, Jane, Jarrod and Dylan,

My heart breaks for all of you. Although I was only 10 years old at the time, I remember when my little cousin, Justin, first came home and what proud parents you were. I do believe he was wearing a cowboy hat even before he could walk! Although we can't make it home from Illinois for his funeral, please know that you all are in our constant thoughts and prayers in the difficult days ahead as you grieve this terrible loss. May you feel the arms of God wrapped tightly around you, and may His peace and comfort fill you.
