“ Dear Ritter family, I was so sad to hear that Kathy has passed away. She was a childhood friend of mine from Sodus Point, NY. She always had a sweet smile and sang in church choir with me. Her mom, Joyce was the choir director! I have not been in contact with her since she moved to Texas, but will always have great memories of her and the Vander Broek family. I send my deepest sympathy and pray for your comfort and peace. In love and friendship, Betsy (Grosz) Wahl

“ Dear Annette, Robby, Maci, Madison, Morgan and grandfather, Mr. Ritter, our family is praying for you during your time of sorrow. I did not know Mrs. Ritter, but she had to have been an exceptionally kind and loving lady because her daughter, granddaughters , Robby and her husband share those attributes, as well. Our God has her now, and she's a resident of the Heavenly Kingdom. † You can rejoice and know that one day you will see her again. What glory that will be! 🙏❤️

“ Mrs Ritter was a very sweet lady. I enjoyed getting to be her nurse in the past year. She always cracked me up calling Mr Bobby “Kid”. She said that was her nickname for him and it stuck. Prayers for the family.
