“ We come across so many people in our lifetime's, and sometimes we are extra-blessed by the grace of God to meet such phenomenal individuals such as Keith Brevard. Though my time crossing paths with Keith was relatively short in the greater scheme of things, it became apparent to me that here was a man of such breadth and depth of qualities that I rarely see, and which I wished would rub-off onto me as well; and me being 10 years older than Keith at that (though we do coincidentally share the birth-day of Dec 2nd). Your influence and impact on so many people, including myself, will go on long after your passing. Rest in peace my friend, and thank you so much that I am a better person for having known you.
