“ Jeff is the first person to make me an aunt. He was a precious little nephew with the sweetest disposition. I was 13 years old when he was born and I had just got my driver’s license. So, as soon as he could walk, I would take him to the Caraban Motel pool to swim, go to the movies, and treasure hunt for old bottles. He was such a well-behaved and agreeable child... just fun to be around. As Jeff went from teenager to adult with children and grandchildren, he always remained my special nephew who I love so much. I will sorely miss my buddy. Rest in Peace, Jeff.
