“ Mr. L.D. Burgess was my favorite uncle, I remember when he gave me a puppy, I was 5 years of age, that puppy named Pepper taught me about responsibility. I also remember that his younger brother Travis and his wife, my grandmother Iva, took on the responsibility of raising my four brothers, sisters and myself. We always enjoyed Uncle L.D. and Aunt Hazel's visits from their home in Vidor, I especially remember the sweet aroma from his pipe tobacco first thing in the morning around his mother's home while breakfast was being prepared. Such great memories, he'll be missed. On a happier note he's no longer in pain and is in a much better place. I can just see him, Aunt Hazel, my grandparents and their relatives baiting their fish hooks, you wouldn't believe smiles on their faces!
