

Mr. Lamar Dickerson

February 25, 1947 - September 30, 2013

Mr. Lamar Owens Dickerson, 66, life-long resident of the Reeves Community of Panola County, Texas will rest beside his maternal grandmother, Izetta Sinclair at Old Prospect Cemetery, 2:00 p.m., Thursday, October 3, 2013. Family and friends are invited to graveside services at Old Prospect Cemetery prior to service time to pay their respects to this “unique country boy”. Lamar was born to Ernest and Katheryn Dickerson on February 25, 1947, he died September 30, 2013. Lamar served his country from 1966 to 1968. After returning home from Germany, he married Shirley Davis and raised two children in the Reeves Community. Lamar worked as a licensed plumber until his retirement. Lamar is survived by his mother, Katheryn Dickerson and his son, Kevin Owens Dickerson, and Sierra, of Reeves Community; and by his daughter, Katrina Elizabeth Smith, and son-in-law, Trevor of Malakoff, Texas. And by his three grandchildren, Amber, 20, Bret, 17, and Cameron, 9, all of Malakoff, Texas. Lamar is survived by three younger sisters: Ernestine, Beverly and Kathy, and by two brothers-in-law, Thomas Patton and Kent Martin. Lamar’s niece, Christy Smith resides in Oklahoma, and his three nephews Chad Kander, of Houghton, Gerald Dickerson of South Dakota, and Joshua Van Winkle of Carthage will each remember Lamar as a unique uncle. Lamar also leaves behind great nieces and nephews, other family members, and many friends. Lamar is preceded in death by his father, Ernest Dickerson. Honorary pallbearers will be Ray Davis, Columbus Mills, Glen Reeves, Sherman Spradley, Timmy Spradley.

The family wishes to send a special thanks to several important people, Pastor Larry Harville, thank you for your comfort, support and dedication to our family. You can never know how much your prayers and presence meant. Finally, to the staff of Overton-Brooks Veteran's Hospital, thank you for your exceptional care. The family requests that donations by sent in lieu of flowers. Please send monetary donations to the Old Prospect Cemetery or to Logan Full Gospel Building Fund. An online guestbook can be signed at www.hawthornfuneralhome.com
