“ My family loves Larry. He is one of the most kind, loving people I have ever known. I speak of Larry as “ is “ because I know where Larry is now. Jesus was Larry’s Lord and Savior and living his ultimate life now. Larry happiness is making other people happy. If you needed anything and Larry Bellamy knew it he did whatever he could to help you. You never saw Larry without a smile on his face. Larry and Sheila lived next door to me for a few years. They rented a house next to me. If you ever wanted a renter to live in you house for rent, they were the best ones you could ever have. That house was in better shape better while they lived there then it was when they moved in, or is now. Larry built a a building for us, remodeled a building into an apartment for my neighbor, got bees out of her attic and much more. My family misses Larry dearly. He is in Heaven doing what he did here, seeing what he can to help someone else. He is one of a kind. I Hope you get to see how many lives you touched, Larry. We miss you but will be together again laughing, talking, doing things together. You are so loved.

“ Larry will surely be missed. He did a lot of work for me & my husband over the years. He loved his peanut butter & jelly so there were several times I would have him a gift bag of pb & j. My nickname for him was “ hey, boy”... I can look around my house & see so many things he did for us. His memory will always be alive. May he rest in peace 💙💙
