“ My husband and I went camping with the Holloway’s quite often... there was this one time we were going to Lake Livingston and we went a day ahead of the Holloway’s, Larry was the tent master and he had a tent ready for us to borrow and we picked it up and went on to the campsite. We got there unloaded the vehicle had a few drinks and proceeded to put up the tent... well we had a hard time getting it up, such a hard time the gentleman camper near us tried to help ...after a long while and struggle Therin and this gentleman got it constructed and we were able to get the sleeping bags in and go to sleep. Next morning we looked at the tent and thought maybe we had a little too much to drink and that’s why we had such a hard time with the tent. Soon the Holloway’s showed up and Larry exclaimed “ how on earth did you even get this thing up looking like this? Oh my! “ Therin said something like “where there is a will, there’s a way.” Then Larry said “ sorry brother but I gave you the wrong tent poles that’s why you had such a hard time!!” Well we laughed so hard and had another drink, relieved that we weren’t as drunk and stupid as we had felt! Gotta love that man! One more thing... I told Larry many times that no matter how hard he tried ... he couldn’t run away from good lookin’! Love you all to infinity and beyond!...Aunt Lynn
