

Ms. Linda Kay Phillips

February 21, 1949 - November 9, 2022

Hawthorn Funeral Home announces the passing of Ms. Linda Kay Phillips. She was born on Monday, February 21, 1949, in Henderson, Texas to her loving parents, Roy Benjamin Forman and Fannie Mae Beard Forman. She passed this life peacefully on Wednesday, November 9, 2022, in Carthage, Texas.

Ms. Linda was a talented lady, spending her life being a hairdresser for many years, an EMT in Henderson, and a homemaker. She retired at the age of 61 from Rusk County Electric Cooperative as a dispatcher. She was a member of Emmanuel Baptist Church in Henderson for many years.

Ms. Phillips loved researching genealogy, finding out who her ancestors were, and learning all about her family history.

Left to cherish Ms. Phillips' memory are her two sons, Ian Phillips, and his wife, Francese- Maye of Farmers Branch, Texas, and Michael Troy Phillips of Overton. Many cousins, relatives, and friends also survive her.

No services have been set at this time for Ms. Phillips.

Cremation arrangements have been entrusted to Hawthorn Funeral Home.

“ I was just talking about her the other day. Was telling someone about how she would write her directions down for us on paper and we would have to turn the paper every time we made a turn going on calls... praying for peace and comfort for her family.
