“ Mr. Bolton,

When I visited with you and Ms. Bolton a few years ago, I realized that life is good and every personal connection has meaning no matter what age or what circumstance that we are going through.

God chose such a beautiful angel to guide and guard us.

With my love,

I know that her faith and your belief in the resurrection will ease some of your pain as you deal with the physical loss. “ Anyone who knew my sweet Aunt Lou knows what a kind & generous person she was. As long as I've been alive, Aunt Lou & Uncle Neal have been inseparable. They were as loving and devoted to one another as they were to their children, Jimmy Neal & Judy Beth. Aunt Lou loved her family, friends (and even her pets) more than some of us in this world deserve to be loved. When Aunt Lou & Uncle Neal lost both their cherished children within a short period of time, the strength, dignity & grace they displayed was inspirational. Aunt Lou had been in persistent, physical pain from arthritis, headaches and other maladies for many years. Even through the terrible pain she was suffering, she wouldn't complain, and always tried to remain positive. Those of us who loved & admired her can take comfort in knowing she is finally at peace, and no longer in pain. Aunt Lou showed us what it looks like to be a loving person who is strongly secure in their faith. Losing her is a painful loss to those of us who loved her so dearly. The world needs more people like Aunt Lou. She will be greatly missed, but she will not be forgotten.

I'm unable to be with my family at this time, or to pay my last respects to precious Aunt Lou. My heart & thoughts are with Uncle Neal, and the remainder of my sweet family.##imported-begin##Diana Langley##imported-end##
