“ Lou was my Dad's "Baby" and I never doubted their great love for each other. She was very special and I will miss her tremendously. The stories they shared were always full of laughter, togetherness and, most of all, love for each other. I feel such a comfort and sweet peace in knowing that she is no longer suffering.

Love and prayers from Janie, Joaquin, Jimmy and two sweet little girls, Bailey and Madison.##imported-begin##Janie Lomax##imported-end##

“ Moma...you will be missed so much!! I will always treasure every memory of our laughing, crying, and loving each other. You will always be my hero Moma!!!!!! I know you are with Jesus and your suffering has ended and I know you are rejoicing!!! Every time I walk by your chair I feel you...I touch it, smell it and feel so much closer to you. You will be with me in everything that I do....I talk to you and feel your presence. I love you Moma, they say time heals all wounds but this void will never heal for me. There is a piece missing in my heart! Peace be with you Moma!!!!!!##imported-begin##Suzanne Appleton##imported-end##

“ Uncle Ivan and Family,
I have the fondest memories of Aunt Lou growing up! I remember going up to great-granddaddy's and great-grandma's house and visit with her on the days she cooked for them. I pray that your memories of her sustain and comfort you through this difficult time. She will be truly missed!

Not goodbye, but until we see one another again.

“ You are all in my prayers. Sis. Gore was one of the sweetest women I've ever known. Anytime you hugged her at church she always gave you sa tender kiss on your cheek. I loved the feel of her hands, they were always so soft and made you feel all was right with the world. Sis. Gore always had kind words to say about everyone. She is going to be missed ever so much.##imported-begin##Gwen Dyke##imported-end##

“ No greater comfort than knowing she no longer suffers. God took her hand and lead her home...Though we have sorrow with her passing, we rejoice that she is home in the presence of her Saviour. I give her honor today, for the wonderful person she was, the spirit filled, prayer warrior and the sweetest grandmother anyone could ever ask for. It is such an honor to have shared her smile, her love and her joy with so many people. Anyone that knew her, loved her! I love and miss you granny...you will forever be in my heart and in my thoughts...

“ To Aunt Lou's family: How wonderful, how beautiful, how comforting to know we have a God who is always near to console and cheer, just when we need Him the most. May the ever-present, forever loving Saviour and mighty Comforter be with your family and bring peace during this difficult time. Matthew 6:28: Consider the lilies of the field, how they grow; they neither toil nor spin. . . even Solomon in all his glory was not arrayed like one of these. Aunt Lou: You are a "lily" to me and you will be missed dearly. We know our Lord and your sister, Belle (my mama) were waiting to greet you - what a reunion that must have been!! Until we see each other again - All our love, Clydene and Victor##imported-begin##Clydene and Victor Coy##imported-end##
