To my wonderful cousins and everyone who knew our beloved Tia Louisa, I wanted to share a little something in her honor. Tia Louisa was truly one of a kind; imagine a mix of sparkle, laughter, and a dash of mischief that made every family gathering feel more comfortable. She had a knack for turning the most ordinary moments into unforgettable memories, often with her smile and laughter that was contagious.

Growing up, my brother (Robert) and I could always count on Tia Louisa to back us up and bring a smile to our faces. Why? Tia Louisa and our family had a special bond growing up, but it was our moms together that was legendary. Their laughter was the soundtrack to our childhood and a reminder that joy could be found even in the smallest of things. Now God has called her home to reunite with her soulmate, my Tio Daniel. I can only imagine the fresh jokes and stories they'll be sharing with the angels above.

Though we're all heartbroken to say goodbye, I find comfort in knowing that Tia Louisa and my Tio Daniel are yet together again. Between the two, they're probably plotting their next big adventure; one that involves even more laughter and love.

To my cousins and to everyone who loved her, please accept my deepest condolences. Let's continue to hold onto the joy she brought into our lives and let it remind us of the incredible woman she was.

With all my love, Albert...
