“ I met Lucille while making dolls, clowns (lots of clowns) and quilting. She was a very good friend and a great quilter. She was very quite and I would tease her at quilting by saying "Lucille I wish you would not talk so much" and we would have a good laugh. She commented that to talk in that group you had to be the loudest. We had lots of fun times at quilting. She was also a very talented lady. She would sew, embroider, appliqué and lots of other things. She was our label person. If we needed a label for anything she would say, "write it down and what color thread do you want." She was a special lady and I will truly miss her. Jeanette Evans
