“ Oh how I will miss my Aunt Lynnell! I will miss her low, resonant voice with a slight drawl. It was almost musical, and I don't anyone whose voice sounds like hers. I love her staunch determination to do what's right and her unwavering faith in Jesus Christ. I will miss visiting her beautiful country home with rockers on the porch. I will miss her always-exuberant dogs, and I'm sure they are missing her now too. If I ever need to lay another laminate floor, she won't be able to get down on her hands and knees to help me again. I will miss seeing her Facebook posts and "likes." The world can't possibly be the same without her in it, but heaven just got brighter and I'm sure she's loving it there. All my love to my cousins Charles, Bobbie Lynn, and Norman; and to Lynnell's surviving sister who is my mom; and to all of her family and friends who loved her so.

“ *She was the kind face with a smile that you saw when you pulled up at the window of the Gary water office. She was that granny who you heard cheering for Taylor at baseball games. She supported all her children and grandchildren. She will be missed. Prayers for Bobbie, Norman, Charles and all the family. May God heal your hearts and provide you with peace and comfort.
