She was a military wife, mother of 4 and Memaw to many. She lit a up a room when you were in her presence- she had an amazing sense of humor & unshakeable faith in God. She loved & lived life with the heart of a warrior & the spirit of a woman of faith. The memories she left in the hearts of those who loved her will never fade away. She has earned her place in heaven by her service to the Lord & others here on Earth. May we all live a little bit more like MeMaw.
