“First, I want to say thank you Mark for just knowing you, that is all it took, for knowing you made us friends for life. You were a faithful servant, serving not only your wonderful Savior but your Country. You cared for others more than you did for yourself, a man of knowledge and wisdom that remained humble and upright. Standing for that which was good, answered many calls and the last call answered was that of the Lord Jesus Christ.

I know the words you heard as you walked through the pearly gates of heaven were those many of us desire to hear, "Well done thou good and faithful servant". It is hard for us to understand the reason for you leaving this world, but you always answered the call. I know a big void is here with your wonderful wife Vickie and all the other family and friends, that is a testament of who you were.

Your loving memories, the thoughts and prayers of many and above all the unmovable faith in our Lord Jesus Christ will help all of us through this time of heartbreak. I can just see you riding off into the sunset on a road that never ends. Your parents named you well, for you left a very special mark upon the hearts of many, including myself.

You didn't say goodbye to anyone, you left us with see you later.

Rest in Peace my friend, until we meet again.

Vickie you are so much on my mind and in my heart. I know what a deep love you have for your Mark. I wish I could say or do something to help you but I know no words can help you. I know your heart can only be helped by the love of our God, your family, very close family and friends. I feel very close to you even though we live miles apart. I know your love for me as a friend in my pain of loss was and is so real and true. My love for you in your loss of Mark is strong and real. He is and will forever be close to you in your heart and memories. It hurts but it is also a blessing ...the love and memories♥I love you my sweet, precious friend. I am and will continue to pray for comfort for you from God. Love from my heart to yours my precious friend. Ada Seale
