Mary Nan will always be Doodle to me. She greeted everybody with a smile that lit up her face with smiling eyes. Doodle always had a pot of coffee on.

The Lord opened the door to heaven and brought another angel home. It brought grief and sorrow on earth, But rejoicing and celebration with Jesus in heaven.

“ This was wonderful person . The first time I met her was around Christmas in 1957. Her daughter Jennifer was tiny and very sick. Mary was so great with her daughter . I was only 10 years old at the time but she was so kind to me. What I thought was the coolest was the fact our birthdays were only a day apart. May your Family be blessed with peace and understanding . Love to Ross, Joe and Randall. I Love you guys.
