“ My Aunt Charlene and Uncle Dub were two of the most awesome people in my life. I spent every summer with them for years and Aunt Charlene never made me feel anything but very loved. She was always bigger than life in my eyes. Aunt Charlene was the ultimate mom. She gave love, encouragement, and support unbounding. She is one of my favorite role models to this day and I will miss her deeply. All my love, support, and prayers go out to my family. We lost an Icon, but she left her loving mark on each of us that she touched.

“ Mrs. Charlene always had a smile on her face. She was a poised lady with a gracious and kind heart. I remember a time we were at Julie and Lee’s. She found out I drank coffee. She walked over to her house, made coffee, and walked back over to Julie’s with a cup for me. I pray for God to give the family peace and comfort. Bobby and Mary Head
