“ She always said I was her baby her angel and the truth is she was my baby my angel God gave us each other. Mrs Mary and I shared daily phone calls and daily visits as the days were not long enough if only we could stop the clocks their was stuff still to do stuff she still wanted to do. Mrs Mary always felt she was a bother I did my best to always assure her no ma'am never was she. I cared and loved her as my own to me she was. It was never a job for me to me it was a Blessing! Everyday spent with her was just that regardless of what we did where we Went. Our time was more prescious than anything. She was and will always be my forever bestest friend.
