“ My beautiful, sweet mother. Always finding something beautiful in everyday happenings and everyday things. So Kind and giving. You never met a stranger.

You always helped me in so many ways. You gave me advise when i needed it and supported me in all the things I wanted to do. You hugged and comforted me when I cried and held my head when I was sick. You shared my joys and my sorrows and we shared so much laughter through the years, even though we lived far apart. Not everyone had a mother as sweet and caring and loving as you. You were my guiding angel. You were my example of Love. I'll always love you and miss you.

Your loving daughter, Linda##imported-begin##Linda Goode##imported-end##

“ So many stories to tell of Mary whom came into our families life in 1980. As a caregiver whom became a trusted friend and two way confidant to my grandfather and myself, Mary became part of our family. We want to you to rest in peace Mary but I know there is no rest for you. You were welcomed by a host of friends. The dancing began and has not stopped. So glad I was able to see you last year. “ Mary was my aunt. She was always a character. She and my mother talked a lot about growing up together. Lots of stories of Mary and her pets growing up. A love that my mother did not share. Stories of Mary bringing her cats to bed (which she shared with my mom) you can just imagine. Mary loved people and loved to talk. She will always be remembered for her array of hats. Johnny and Linda may God wrap His loving arms of comfort around you.##imported-begin##Bill and Tonya Yeager##imported-end##
