“ I knew Max from Tascosa High School. Max sat next to me in homeroom and English classes. I always liked Max, his dry, cynical wit matched up well with mine. We always had fun together and I enjoyed knowing him. He will be missed. Our class maintains a website at www.tascosa71.com I have added Max's obituary to our "In Memory" section.##imported-begin##Jim Rayburn##imported-end##

“ Loved Max. What a delightful, generous, caring, and funny person. There are no words to express our sorrow for your loss. Our prayers are with you and the entire family. We are looking forward to seeing him in heaven and finally learning all his fishing secrets. That will take a while, but it will be fun. God loves us.##imported-begin##Jan and Cyndee Kindrick##imported-end##
