

Mr. Michael Frederick Maronde

January 31, 1949 - July 31, 2023

Mike Morande, 74 of Carthage, passed away on Monday, July 31, 2023, in Carthage. He was born on January 31, 1949, in Frankfurt Germany to unknown parents, but was shortly thereafter adopted by Col. Lawrence and Margaret Maronde and they lived in Salina, Kansas. His formative years were spent moving around the world with his father's military service and experiencing a wide range of cultures. He then took on to law school but decided to embrace a different path in life. He worked on the seas in Saudi Arabia and several others odd jobs before landing on his primary career. That of detailing cars in his own shop called "Detail World" in Edmond, Oklahoma. He married Mrs. Diane Blair and together they had two children, Jennica and Jared Maronde. After some time, they divorced and he moved to Athens, Texas where he ran a Radio Shack before marrying again to Michele Clough, and together they had one child, Kagan Maronde. He opened another "Detail World" in Athens servicing cars from the whole region to which he became known for his high quality of work.

He divorced again and married Debbie Brown and together they moved to Carthage, where he enjoyed a quiet retired life until his passing.

Mike is survived by his loving wife, Debbie Brown, children, Jennica Haddox, Jared Maronde, Kagan Maronde, and Charlotte Matlock; many grandchildren, nieces, nephews, and sister, Cheryl Betty.

A memorial service will be held on Saturday, August 12, 2023, at 12:00 p.m. at the Athens Marina and RV Park in the event center. Cremation arrangements have been entrusted to Hawthorn Funeral Home.
