“ I will miss Miriam -- always an interesting, vibrant lady. I never saw her treat any person badly, or speak ill of anyone, and she was more than gracious and kind to me when I first married one of her great nephews. I am grateful to have known her for a scant few years out of her long and amazing life.##imported-begin##Deb McAlister-Holland##imported-end##

“ Names were important to my Aunt Miriam and since both Alma and Amanda were family names, she was pleased that not only was my name Alma but that I named my daughter Amanda. She thrilled me by passing on to me an old, old family letter from W. T. Morrison to Amanda McDaniel written in 1852. With it came a quilt. In his love letter is written "Your are the bright star of my future happiness." Aunt Miriam gave happiness, too. I recall joyous times when she and Uncle Doyle came to visit when I was very young and her letters and calls until recent years. I loved her.##imported-begin##Alma Lucille Dennard Buck##imported-end##

“ I was saddened to learn of the passing of Miriam. I knew her through my Aunt Mary who was laid to rest last week. Miriam was always very friendly and showed a special interest in me. Miriam and Mary were two strong wonderful ladies. With them goes the passing of an era. My life has been blessed by their presence.

May God be with you.
