“Nathan was my lifelong friend! A few days before he died, we talked and remembered old times from the two room schoolhouse at Buncombe, of Mr & Mrs Brooks, and Mrs Gentry and of a time long gone. We went to Hopewell Baptist Church where his Dad, Ernest Langford led the singing. Nathan and his family lived across the road from the church and next to the school. My family, and lots of others, came to church in wagons pulled by horses and they were all parked out front. I haven't forgotten where I came from and the people like Nathan and his family that touched my life. Farewell, Dear Friend. I'll see you again on the other side!

“I just happened to be browsing through the Houston Chronicle last night and came upon the obituary notice for Nathan. He always came across as a very good and decent man. He and Pat leave a legacy in their family of the same kind of people. I have known Ken and Cheryl for many years, and consider it a privilege to call them friends. My heartfelt sympathies for your loss and please know the entire family is in my prayers.

“ I worked with Nathan Langford at the South Houston Complex. I had worked at "The Light Company" when I just got out of High School (1957) but quit to start a family in 1959. My husband, Vic Allen, also worked with Nathan in T/D Substation Maintenance. I went back to work in 1980 this is when I met Nathan. He was a very sweet person, always had a smile on his face. I know that he will be very much missed by his family.

Ernest Kubosh also sends his warmeth regards.

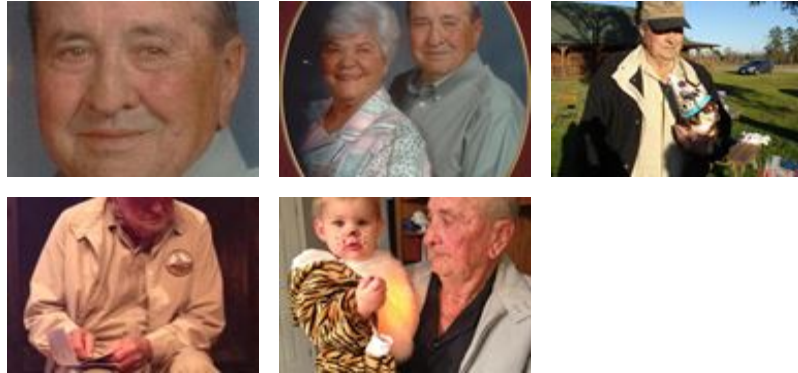

May God give you and your family comfort.

“ Eight months ago Pat Langford passed away and broke her beloved husband's heart. Not a day passed that Mr. Langford, Nathan, and her daughter, Cheryl, did not miss her terribly. I went to high school with Cheryl and she remains my closest friend from those days gone by. I loved seeing the Langford's and spending time with them. Mr. and Mrs. Langford treated me in a way that always made me feel welcome and special. One of my most fondest of memories of Mr. Langford was when he made fajitas. I had never had fajitas! He made me one and made me eat it right in front of him. And, Mr. Langford gave advice....and you listened. Just a few months ago a former high school classmate of ours, ill and very depressed, reached out to him. And I have to mention my memory of how he looked at Mrs. Langford. You knew he adored and loved her. He had that twinkle in his eye when she spoke. When she left this world, life was not the same for him; and now, they are together and whole. I hope this is comforting to their children.

And....to my dear friend Cheryl,
Words can't express the sadness I feel. You lost your mother and cared for your Dad while your own heart was grieving. You are in my thoughts along with my heartfelt sympathies.

Love,
Mary Kay (Manning) Pennycuff
