“ Oh Ms. Nevelyn. I had to stop and go wipe my tears as the many memories of times past flood my mind. We had so much fun with you growing up. We were your family for so long. You gave us four girls our first sweet tarts and hula hoop. That may not sound like a lot to most people, but to us it was great. You tried to comfort us when we all woke up with chicken pox. We had so many sloppy joe dinners, 4-H, times at the community center and church. Times at your house and ours. We still laugh at Nettie not being able to walk across your cattle guard. Of her and Witzi in Jabie's pond. And then there was you in all your hats at the cemetary workings. I'll never forget you. You were not only good friends with my mom, you were always like a mom to me.##imported-begin##Lessie Price Hughes##imported-end##
