“ Ijust wanted to say I met Norma Jean through my mon who taught her in high school. Norma Jean was such a fun person to be around. Even as a little girl I remember thinking how pretty and full of life. She was so funny sometimes I would just shake. I enjoyed doing business with her at the flower shop and will always hold good memories in my heart for having know her. May god bless you through this time.##imported-begin##alice##imported-end##

“ Mitch, Norman, Kim and Kandie,

I was so sorry to read of Norma Jean's passing, I found out to late so was unable to attend the visitation and funeral. I always enjoyed a hug and our conversations when I stopped by the Flower shop when I was in town, Norma was an amazing lady, a true friend that will always be remembered. Mitch and I went to school together, I remember Norman from the Sabine Riding Club when he was a youngster, same with Kim. I was in Carthage later after the funeral and visited the Cemetary, the flowers were beautiful! Norma is smiling down upon each of you, she truly loved you all! If I may be of any help, please contact me!###imported-begin###Mike Ford###imported-end###

“ Norma was always at the front line when it came to giving back to others. Not sure if a lot of people knew a lot about her generosity but she was such a giving person and always supported organizations for children. I will be praying for the strength for her family.##imported-begin##Paulette Goree##imported-end##

“ There aren't any words that will take away sadness each of you are feeling. Norma Jean was such an amazing woman and she will be missed each and everyday. Hold on to the memories and let her love and kindness live through her children. She is with our Heavenly Father smiling and watching over us all and will be until we meet again.

If there is anything any of you need you know how to find us.

We are praying for each of you, let God embrace you and walk you through the days to come.

In deepest sympathy,
