“ I am devastated to hear this news. I met Mrs. Langford in 1975 - her daughter Cheryl and I were the best of friends. I always thought of Mr. and Mrs. Langford as the perfect couple in love (totally). Mrs. Langford always had a smile on her face and a hug for me each and every time I saw her. Mr. Langford made my first dish of fajitas in 1976. Words can not express my sorrow and condolences for the family. The world was a better place with Mrs. Langford in it. She will be missed.

“ I remember Patricia Irwin well. She was a beautiful, dark-haired girl, and we were in class together at Bonner Elementary School. We grew up and went our separate ways, but I will always remember how lovely and sweet she was.

“ Dear Cheryl and Family,
We are so sorry for your loss. Though we never met your mother, we feel like we knew her though hearing all about your visits with her and reading the nice obit. She was a godly lady and much loved
