“ Sister Tarrant is one of the nicest I ever met at Henderson Ward,,she was such a pleasure to have as a Primary teacher for some of the children in my family,,loved attending the class sometimes to hear her lessons and sing songs with her and the children. Always appreciated her positive personality and smile. I will miss her,,as I miss her brother Henry Wyatt. Good family.##imported-begin##Debra Crawford Robinson##imported-end##

“ Pat was one of my best friends in the world. I 1st met her while she was caring for me as a nurse after I was critically injured in a car accident. Her warmth & caring helped me recover. Then , just a few months later, I became a member of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints. As I was about to be baptized, I met her again in the women's room while changing. Then is where she began to change my life & we enjoyed a long friendship & sisterhood in Christ so wonderful that words can't describe.. She took me to my 1st trip to the Temple in Dallas, not on a whim, but because"God told her to", & that same day bought me a beautiful burgundy,bonded leather copy of the Holy Scriptures with my name engraved in gold. She was the GOLD , though!!! She has earned her crown & is in God's presence, she can know no more suffering- the suffering she knew too much of in her Earthly life, yet persevered, always, through it with a smile. I will miss her more than words can ever say, but cannot be sad for her or that she is no longer here on Earth. I know she is home with Heavenly Father. He told me so! I love you SO MUCH, Pat and I'll see you when I get there!###imported-begin###Amanda Dickerson-Wallace###imported-end###

“ Patricia lived her testimony of the gospel through her family, friends and co-workers. She was always ready to respond to any need she knew of. I still love and respect her even though we are not married and am thankful for her understanding friendship and acceptance of me after the divorce. Jay and I will have many fond memories of her.###imported-begin###Dan Tarrant###imported-end##

“ I am so sorry to hear about Pat. I was so shocked. I'm very thankful I went to see her when I did. She was truly a loving and caring person who was always ready to help when needed. She will be truly missed.
I'm thankful for the time I spent with her riding back and forth to work. We shared some good times.
I know she loved the LORD.
The whole family is in our prayers.
