“ *Peggy, Melody & Tommy,
Words are not adequate enough to express my condolences of the loss of the beautiful person that Michelle was. Her sweet personality, her vibrant energy, and contagious smile made Michelle who she was. So many stories come to mind, but the one I will never forget is when "Dirty Dancing" first came out in theaters she dragged me to that movie every night of the week. The last night we saw it, we both were quoting it verbatim. Not a truer friend, than Michelle. Its hard to believe she is not with us anymore; however, I know she is in a much better place. Prayers for all the family for the coming days ahead. Prayers for strength as you lay Michelle in her final resting place. Prayers for comfort, and peace knowing that one day we will all see her again. Prayers for our graduating class of 1988 that we will always remember Michelle's laugh as we all played those long games of "Spades" in Mr. Kings class, or when she would drive like crazy getting us home because we were past curfew. May God bless you all.....*
