Robert Goodson officiating. Burial will follow in the Rehobeth Cemetery under the direction of Hawthorn Funeral Home. Family visitation will be 10 – 11:00 a.m. Wednesday prior to the service at Rehobeth. Mrs. Whitaker died peacefully at her home July 20, 2014 in Carthage, Texas.

Mrs. Patty Lew "Pat" Easley Whitaker was born February 24, 1931 in Ft. Worth, Texas. She was one of five children born to the marriage of Noel and Myrtle Mae Inlow Easley. She was raised and schooled in Tenaha and graduated from Carthage High School. Pat met the love of her life Alwin Biggs "Sonny" Whitaker and they married November 4, 1957 in Starkville, Mississippi.

Mrs. Whitaker worked as a Lab Technician for Dr. Baker in Carthage, and Dr. Brasswell as well as the VA Hospital in Shreveport, Louisiana for over 28 years. Her talents included cake decorating, catering, stained glass and sewing her ornate Christmas stockings. She had a great love of many things, which included her kitties. She and Sonny loved dancing as members of the Amigos Dance Club in Shreveport. Pat was a member of Summer Grove United Methodist Church in Shreveport as well as Rehobeth United Methodist Church in Carthage and the Carthage Chamber of Commerce. She is preceded in death by her parents, husband and brothers-in-law, James Pope and Charles Brown.

Mrs. Whitaker is survived by her loving daughter, Joanna Terral and husband Terry of Carthage, grandson, Joshua Michael Barron of Carthage, brother, Dennis Easley and wife Beverly of Longview, sisters, Virginia "Ginner" Pope of Kingwood, Ollie "Pete" Perkins and husband Oscar of Diana and Susan "Chubby" Brown of Diana, brother-in-law, Lynn Travis Whitaker and wife Linda of LaQuinta, California, numerous nieces, nephews, loads of friends and back porch visitors.

The family would like to acknowledge with special thanks for all their kindness, Natalie Cole, Texas Home Health, Heartsway Hospice and the visits from the Rehobeth Helping Hands. The family suggests memorials to Panola College Whitaker Brothers Scholarship.

“ Words cannot express all the good times and memories we shared as we traveled the United States in our RV's. I will miss you every day but know that you are at peace and in a better place. Make those guys in Heaven behave or run them through the "car wash".
Joanna - we have shared many good times and hope that continues in the future.

Love you, Shirley
