“ I was browsing the net and looking for old friends. If I have the right Penny and I think I have as she had a younger sister called Jeta. Penny and I were good friends when we were teenagers in Bawburgh Norfolk England. I still have photos of her going back to the early sixties. I would like to send my condolences to her husband and family. I would be pleased to forward pictures I have. Please email me at: john.rickett@btinternet.com

“ Penny was a treasure to the horse world. She always had time to talk to talk horses with me and was a wealth of information when I purchased my beloved stallion. He was bred on her ranch, and I am so thankful to have him and his dam who Penny also owned at one time. I felt a special bond with Penny as she helped bring two treasured horses into the world, and I am blessed to own them still. I hope Penny is resting in peace.
