“ I went to city college with Rick- a great friend and a super smart guy. He will be missed by all.

“ A big old gentle giant with a big ol head that never stopped questioning.

I got to know Rick through work and he was one of the kindest, most interesting fellas I have ever met.

My condolences to his wife and daughters. The Rick I got to know was always preoccupied with "his girls" staying brave, smart and strong.

He was a guardian through and through.

I am proud that I got to know him a little.
