I am so sorry for your loss. I know Uncle Bud will be greatly missed. I doubt there is another family in the world that could tell a story like the Rebert clan, you may have to sort through the stories to figure out the "real" from the "exaggerated" or just the "plain made up" parts (did I say that?) but they were always funny. I remember the great times we had when we stayed with you while you lived in Missouri and all of the happy memories we made. I heard that your water heater took out "life" insurance just in case another snake came for a visit. Our prayers are with all of you. Love, Donna Rebert Haley
