“ Roger Dale, one of the best friends I ever had. We didn't know we were making memories. We were just living and enjoying life. Those days of living and enjoying life are now precious memories that will be treasured forever. Death leaves a heartache no one can heal. Love leaves Precious Memories no one can steal. Precious memories how they linger, How they ever flood my soul. In the stillness, of the midnight. Precious sacred scenes unfold. It was an honor to be asked if I had any thoughts & memories that I would like to have shared at Roger's memorial service. Thank you, Kay.

To Roger Dale's family. I want to share this with you. It's something that I came to know with the death of our son, Adam. In the Father's wise and loving plan for you, no burden can fall upon you, no emergency can arise, no grief can overtake you, before you are given the grace and strength to meet them. You will continue to be in my prayers.

"There is a sacredness in tears. They are not the mark of weakness, but of power. They speak more eloquently than ten thousand tongues. They are messengers of overwhelming grief and unspeakable love." Washington Irving.

Roger Dale, my precious friend, you will be greatly missed & forever loved. Gloria

I just heard about "Rat." He was a great guy and as a teenager, I loved him dearly as a friend. I remember all the good times he and my sisters and I got in hanging out together. I miss those times...but we can't dwell on them only remember them with fondness. I remember you too, "Bugeater" as we called you. Prayers sent to the family of Roger. God bless you and may you find comfort in Him. Debra McCracken Hattaway.
