“ To the family: I am so sorry to hear of the loss of Ronnie. He and I go way back. We had some fun times when we were both younger. Haven't seen him in a long time but when I would see him he always was smiling, regardless, of he felt. My prayers are with the family and may God give you peace and comfort.

“ We will truly miss Ronnie's visits to our store. He was more than just our customer of over 20 years, he was our friend and part of our "family" at the coin shop. We had a nice visit with him on Friday, and as usual he brought joy and happiness with him, always with a kind word and winning smile. He spoke so kindly of his family and said just Friday, what a wonderful woman his sister -in-law was, and how good she has been to he and his father looking after them while they had been ill over the holidays. He also spoke at length of his love for Ray his brother and his father and was so glad to have you all in his life.

Over the years he spoke of his faith, and I know he is in the presence of his savior and in the company of his beloved mother and brother.

Please know you all are in our thoughts and prayers.

Sincerely, Julie Beck and Carrie Jackson your friends at The Coin Investor Longview
