I wasn't going to say anything. It's just not my style but this time last year I was holding my dad's hand and right under 2 hours from watching my dad take his last breath. It was a honor like I haven't felt before or since. Tonight, I miss my daddy.....

“ With my condolences to the Davidson family, I am sorry that I cannot attend the memorial services as I have just learned of his passing and I am in Spring, TX. Higgy and I have been the closest of friends since our days at Texas Eastern and that goes back a long way. We enjoyed many happy moments together, playing fast pitch softball, fishing, frog gigging and just having a brew together. Being miles apart has never reduced our friendship as we have always been able to keep in touch. I will be traveling to Shreveport this Friday morning and my plans were to stop by and touch base with Higgy. I know that he has had some health issues in recent years, but he seemed to be battling through them, but I know he is in a better place today. He will always be in my fondest memories and may he rest in peace.

I am sad to learn of Higgy's passing. I am praying for his family and close friends. I had not seen him in close to 50 years. (I am Leon's granddaughter, Layden's daughter, Gladney Gene's sister. I heard this sad news from Judy Davidson Whiston(Claude's granddaughter) so the extended family is learning of his death.
