“ Ruth was a loving and caring mother-in-law for the 16 years I was married to Mark. Ruth, or Granny, will always be remembered for her hospitality and good cooking, especially her bread. She would always send us a fresh loaf to take home after visiting, and it would always get eaten before we arrived. She was indeed a great mother-in-law and will be missed greatly by friends and loved ones.###imported-begin##Dena Bumgarden##imported-end##
