“ To the Smith family,

I had the privilege of working with Ryan several years ago at E&S. He was a joy to work with and I always enjoyed our conversations. He made me laugh. We often talked about his life, his family and his friends. I considered him one of my sons. I was sad when he chose to take another job and move on, but, he was looking for bigger and better things. We lost touch, but I always asked Daryl how he was and what he was up to. Rest in Peace, Ryan. You will be greatly missed.##imported-begin##Brenda Cash##imported-end##
