“ Sally & I had a lot of laughs & fun when I was part of the family. She was a sweet, Christian woman and I loved her dearly. We didn't see each other very much over the years but our phone conversations were full of good memories.

“ Aunt Sally was a perfect example of a Christian wife and mother. I spent a lot of my growing up years at her house, attended church with the family, watched her bowl often and until work took me away from Carthage, continued to see her and Uncle Bertis over the years. She liked to laugh and always had the coffee on. I know she was loved and will be missed by many.

“ I knew Sally and all her family and Bertis and all the Seegers. We were solid friends over many years and shared so many things in common. Mr. Buck employed me as a roustabout 3 summers so I could earn money for college. Ted was a classmate and a close friend. When I went back to East Texas I always visited Sally and Bertis. Over the course of many years the 3 of us spent untold hours on the phone - wonderful memories. After Bertis passed I continued to call Sally until her health began to fail. She and Bertis were 2 of the dearest friends I ever had. Sally was intelligent, down to earth and had all the qualities one could want in a friend. To their children and other offspring, know that their passing leaves a hole in my heart that won't be filled; but I have a wonderful collection of special memories. Grace, Peace and Love to all of you. Joe Ben La grone
