“ What I liked about Sandra was her sparkling blue eyes and her upbeat personality. She could make you smile, no matter what the situation. She was funny and loved to joke. She had a big heart for other people. She had a nickname for everyone she knew that was funny. She was a sweet person and a hard worker.

“ One of the hardest working women I have ever known, she loved scraping in the houses that we tore down, and the best at packing a trailer,, also a very hard headed woman! She will be missed a great deal by myself and her family.

“ I first met Aunt Sandra when I and her niece Lynnette started dating and after we got married and I became part of the family became very fond of Sandra and that's when I came to know her as my aunt Sandra. Even though I was not blood kin to her she excepted me calling her my aunt Sandra. Her heart was that big. One of my fondest memories that I'll never forget is starting fires for her one winter for her outside her camper trailer so she could stay warm while she stood outside and she told me that I was her "FIRE STARTER". I know that's not much but it's the little things in life that mean the most to me. REST IN PEACE AUNT SANDRA..... WE LOVE YOU.
