“ Rob,

My heart is broken. Many years have passed, but I never forgot my time with my beautiful, unique and dear friend, Scarlett. You know, when we first met and she moved to Carthage from Colorado, we just couldn't stand each other! And the next thing I knew, I was standing as her maid of honor to give her away to you. Then those beautiful blessings came along, Tracie and Little John Harper. Oh God, how I wish I could have been around to spend more time with her through all these years. There is just no excuse and I will regret it until the day that I get to see her gorgeous face again. My thoughts are with you.

Much Love,

Jackie Barkley

“ I Thessalonians 4:13-18

13 But we do not want you to be uninformed, brothers, about those who are asleep, that you may not grieve as others do who have no hope. 14 For since we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so, through Jesus, God will bring with him those who have fallen asleep. 15 For this we declare to you by a word from the Lord, that we who are alive, who are left until the coming of the Lord, will not precede those who have fallen asleep. 16 For the Lord himself will descend from heaven with a cry of command, with the voice of an archangel, and with the sound of the trumpet of God. And the dead in Christ will rise first. 17 Then we who are alive, who are left, will be caught up together with them in the clouds to meet the Lord in the air, and so we will always be with the Lord. 18 Therefore encourage one another with these words.
